DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 2 is objected to because of the following informalities: "them" should be replaced with --the--. Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "permanent magnet" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). It is suggested that schematic illustration is sufficient. No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New

Art Unit: 3676

Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 2, 6, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It's not clear what is meant by alternative recitation of "can be swiveled parallel or vertical to the swiveling axis" where as best understood, the safety lever has a single degree of rotational freedom whereby it is able to pivot about its pivot axis.

It's not clear what the scope and meaning of "assigned to" limitation of claims 6 and 7 should include. As best understood, direct contact of the microswitch and the safety lever is not disclosed whereby broader interpretation is appropriate as the term is now used in the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3676

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Germany Pat. Document No. 1772882.

Germany '882 teaches Applicant's claim limitations including "a "locking lever" – 3, a "safety lever" – 7, "is actuated with prestress" – provided by leaf spring 9, and illustrated as being "pivoted in its center of gravity".

7. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Pat. No. 5,988,711 to Toma.

Toma '711 teaches Applicant's claim limitations including "a "locking lever" – 3, a "safety lever" – 10, "is actuated with prestress" – provided by spring 14, and explicitly described as being symmetrically constructed and "pivoted in its center of gravity".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Pat. No. 5,988,711 to Toma in view of U.S. Pat. No. 6,874,830 to Bashford.

Although Toma '711 does not disclose a microswitch, Bashford '830 teaches that it is well known in the art to provide a microswitch. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide the striker of Toma '711 with a microswitch for monitoring the condition of the striker from remote location.

10. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Germany Pat. Document No. 1772882 in view of U.S. Pat. No. 6,874,830 to Bashford.

Although Germany '882 does not disclose a microswitch, Bashford '830 teaches that it is well known in the art to provide a microswitch. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide the striker of Germany '882 with a microswitch for monitoring the condition of the striker from remote location.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claim 9 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Inasmuch as a locking device having a swivel latch, safety lever and locking lever together with a permanent magnet arranged as required is not disclosed or made obvious by the prior art, it is considered to define allowable subject matter. In the same light, it becomes apparent that the invention should be illustrated. It is suggested that a drawing similar to Fig 1 or Fig 2 amended to include a small 'box' in the vicinity of the safety lever with a reference numeral be provided, and that recitation of the permanent magnet in the original written description be amended to include that reference numeral.

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
